

Atlanta

Technology Top 5

Q1 2024

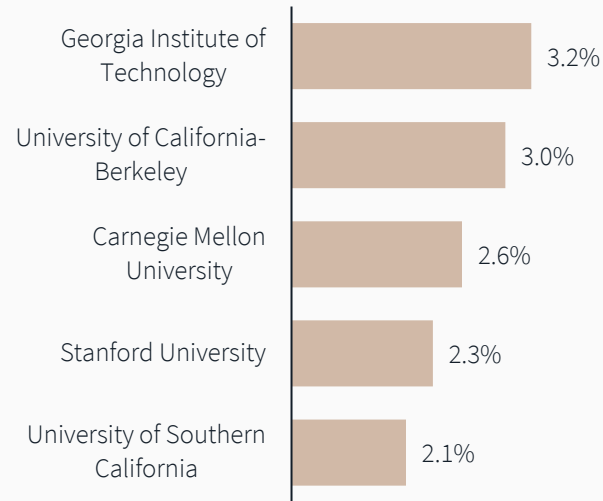

For more contact:
lisa.jebodhsingh@jll.com

Looking ahead:

Atlanta will continue to be one of the fastest growing cities for tech, with a thriving ecosystem fueled by its education infrastructure, talent and innovation incubators, and will continue to be a magnet for businesses, investors and talent.

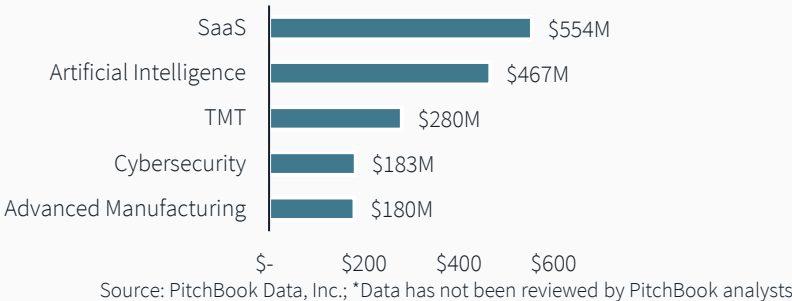

1 Georgia Tech is the #1 educational institution in the U.S. that current AI employees have graduated from.

Where did the current AI talent graduate from?

Source: JLL Research, Lightcast

2 In Atlanta, SaaS focused companies took the largest share of VC funding in the 12 months to Q1 2024.

3 Tech jobs will grow at the 3rd fastest pace in the Southeast over the next five years.

112,274

Tech jobs today in Atlanta MSA

12%

growth in the next 5 years

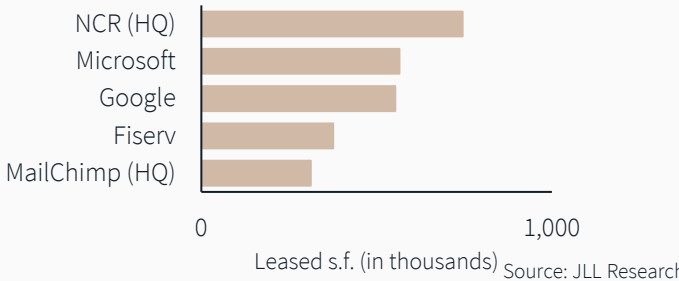

Source: Lightcast

4 Strong educational institutions are driving the growth of tech in Atlanta.

University	Bachelor's	Master's +
Georgia Tech	3,389	5,517
University of Georgia	2,423	857
Kennesaw State	1,887	516
Georgia State	1,309	668
Emory	1,068	595

Source: Lightcast, Information Science and Computer Research Degrees

5 Leading Big Tech companies have a large presence in Atlanta, including headquarter locations.

Tech stats

112,274 Tech employees
11.6% forecasted growth next 5 years

8,505 Tech companies
11.9% growth from 2020 to 2023

20,518 STEM graduates
 Up 54% last 4 years
Top university: Georgia Institute of Technology

$833 million in tech venture capital funding since Q2 2023
 Artificial Intelligence was 56% of the total

$156,197
 Tech worker average earnings
2nd highest in the Southeast,
 19th of largest N. Amer. metros

$34 billion Technology companies' contribution to Gross Regional Product up 35% from 2019